Dm Dm F G Em Am

1. As now the sun shines down at noon, your light, O Lord, burns in our hearts;
 2. E - li - jah taunt - ed Baal at noon; he knew you, Lord, would an - swer him;
 3. On Gol - go - tha the sky turned dark; all sha - dows of the morn and eve
 4. At noon-time Paul be - held your light, so bright it can - celled out the sun;
 5. O God, cre - a - tion's rul - ing force, O Je - sus, cru - ci - fied for us, as - sist us to en - dure that light, and through your judg - ment find your grace.

 may we, too, trust your sov - ereign power when we must act in day's hard light.
 con - verged to shield frail hu - man eyes from all the woe you bore for us.
 you blind - ed and con - vert - ed him; O turn us now to see your face.
 O Spi - rit, bring - ing truth and love, we praise and bless you ev - ery hour.
