

Dicamus laudes Domino

Words: Latin, 13th century; tr. Anne K. LeCroy
Music: Dicamus laudes Domino, plainsong, mode 5, 13th century

$\text{♩} = 120$

1. Now let us sing our praise to God
2. For at this hour to all the world
3. So daz - zling is its ho - ly light,
4. All glo - ry be to you, Lord Christ, with fer - vent heart and rea - - dy mind:

the grace of true sal - - - va - tion came:
it puts the noon - - - - day sun in shade.
who, con - quering death reign glo - rious - - - ly

each day the sun at ze - nith calls the Lamb of God re - - - stored out peace Then let us all with joy em - - - brace with God, Cre - - - a - - - tor of all things the faith - ful to their noon - day prayers.

by vir - tue of his sav - ing cross.
the flam - ing splen - - - dor of such grace.
and with the Spi - - - rit Com - fort - - - er.