Thou hast searched me and known me. Thou known you, and where can I go from your Spirit Lord? O known when I sit, and when I rise. O searched you child.

where can I flee your presence, where can I flee your presence,

numbered more than sand,

I'll never leave you, never forsake you.

I'll never leave you, never forsake you.

When you awake, I still am with you.

Darkness is not dark to me, and night is bright as

I did form your inward parts, and weave you in the

Even before a word is on your tongue, I know it
If I should take the wings of the dawn, or dwell in the depths of the sea.
You have enclosed me behind and before and laid your hand on me.
Search me, O God, and know my heart.
Try me and know my thoughts.

Search me, O God, and know my heart.
Try me and know my thoughts.

Even there my hand will lead, my right hand will take knowledge is too wonderful. It is too high. You if there be some wicked thing, and lead you in the

If I cannot attain to ever last ing way. O,

O, my God, you are with me.
where can you go from my Spirit Child? O

You’ll never leave me, never forsake me, Lord.
where can you flee my presence, Child.
